Awareness in a Box

featuring

Arrest My Sister

Sunday, October 9

11:00 AM and 2:00 PM

@The Curious Cup

Scott Siegel is the lead singer and keyboard player of Arrest My Sister, a classic rock band that has performed at Carnegie Hall, South by Southwest in Austin, as well as colleges, county fairs, and not for profit venues across the country. Scott has written over 300 hundred songs. Arrest My Sister is the centerpiece performer for Awareness in a Box events. Awareness in a Box events consists of entertainment and simulation activities that allow people to walk in the shoes of people with autism and other disabilities. Awareness in a Box allows people to understand, accept, and ultimately include people with disabilities into their everyday lives.
